

JILL KRAHWINKEL NAMED NORTH CAROLINA EXECUTIVE DIVISION DIRECTOR FOR CARING FAMILY NETWORK

Caring Family Network is pleased to announce the arrival of its new North Carolina Executive Division Director, Jill Krahwinkel. In this role, Jill leads a dedicated team of professionals in providing exceptional supervision for today's youth in foster care. She is a licensed professional counselor and holds a Master of Arts in Education with an emphasis in Mental Health Counseling (Summa Cum Laude) from Western Kentucky University. Jill is also a Certified Reality Therapist and Juvenile Sex Offender Counselor.

Before joining Caring Family Network in February 2009, Jill worked for six years for a diverse range of organizations, including NECCO, Daviess County Drug Court, and River Valley Behavioral Health in Kentucky. She has been responsible for day to day operations of foster care programs, court ordered programs and treatment and brings with her a wealth of experience.

As North Carolina Executive Division Director for Caring Family Network, Jill ensures the certification of quality foster parents, placement of youth in need of stability, excellent therapeutic services offered to the community as well as internal training of Caring Family Network staff.

Jill is excited about joining the team of Caring Family Network. She is committed to ensuring that Caring Family Network provides exceptional services to the community as well as develop internal systems that promote team work, integrity, and loyalty. Please feel free to contact Jill with any comments or suggestions at : jkrahwinkel@caringfamilynetwork.org or 919.870.8699
